Responsible Realty Opens New Office

Responsible Realty announces the opening of their new branch office, located at 733 W. Carson, Torrance. Primarily serving the South Bay area since 1955, the new addition enables them to expand services to include San Pedro, Wilmington, Lomita, Harbor City, greater Los Angeles County.

Offering low down payment homes to buyers through equity purchases one of their primary sources of sales. Having already purchased more than six million dollars in homes since 1955, the new facilities will enable them to offer cash for homes covering an area some 80 square miles in this area.

Mr. Jack Salling, manager, announces his staff is capable of handling homes anywhere in this area, and can obtain maximum loans for resale. Services are free and all home owners are welcome to call at any time.

Dean L. Sears Appointed as TB Chairman

Appointment of Dean L. Sears, 1433 Post Ave., Torrance, as community chairman of the crippling respiratory disease educational and fund raising campaign in this area, was announced today by Leland A. Phillips, president of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Los Angeles County.

Sears will head the drive to be conducted in Torrance during the month of June which will solicit funds by mail from city residents for the support of special research and program activities conducted by the local health agency in the field of chronic respiratory illnesses.

"Chronic respiratory diseases, such as emphysema, bronchitis and the allergies, are accounting more and more for days lost from work," Phillips said. "It is estimated that one-fourth of absenteeism in industry is caused by respiratory illnesses."

The TB and Health Association president said that money contributed to the crippling respiratory disease campaign will be used in local projects designed to help science find the answers to chronic respiratory diseases.
